

Wildwood Park

Cirencester Near Gloucester

Only a mile from the centre of Cirencester, can be found Wildwood Park. On the edge of the Cotswolds, one of the most beautiful areas of the country, with rolling hills and picturesque countryside, Wildwood Park is a quiet and tranquil residential park for the over 50's in their post work leisure years.

All of the homes at Wildwood Park are connected to natural gas and most of the homes have their own private parking and garages. Pets are allowed at the discretion of the management.

Local Amenities

With a regular local bus service that stops close to the park, Cirencester is only minutes away with its bustling streets and many essential shops with a street market which is held every Monday and Friday. Since 1999 Cirencester has held a very popular farmers market with craft and antique markets being a regular feature other days of the week..

Situated to the west of Cirencester is Cirencester park which is the family seat of the Earls of Bathurst. The park covers 3000 acres and it provides visitors a walk in a tranquil and a relaxed environment. Within Cirencester park is the famous Polo-ground, founded in 1894 and is the oldest polo playing ground in the UK. Its idyllic surroundings make it probably the prettiest.

In and around Cirencester, close to Wildwood Park are many different restaurants and hotels that are ideal for entertaining friends or treating yourself to a special meal for a special occasion. In particular, The Corinium Hotel offers a wide selection of dishes on their menu whether it's for a formal or more informal occasion, or just for a quick snack between shopping trips or days of exploring the surrounding area. Sitting between the River Thames and the Severn canal is The Tunnel House Inn, offering excellent home cooked food using fresh and seasonal ingredients. One can enjoy the
